

Three "Adult RE" classes will be starting up right away. Please join your fellow Midcoast UUs at one or more of these classes as we explore and grow together! Other classes will be offered in the fall, but if a class you were interested in is not being offered right away, please consider attending one of these three that are:

Introduction to the History of Unitarian and Universalism Faiths with Rev. Chuck Reinhardt

Two sessions, meeting Tuesday, June 8 & June 15, 7-9 pm

At Chuck Reinhardt's home in Sheepscot

Please call Chuck for more information and directions: 586-5202

This class is highly recommended if you are new to Unitarian Universalism or to the Fellowship.

Book Group: Jesus and the Disinherited by Howard Thurman

Five sessions, the first meets Saturday, June 12, 10 am-noon

At Skidompha Library in the meeting room above the front entrance

Future meeting times & places will be determined at the first meeting. Copies of the book are available at the welcome table at Fellowship. If you would like to take the class, please pick up a copy and read the first chapter before the first meeting. Please contact Donna Dolham for more information: 273-1190 ddolham@tds.net

What Moves Us: Unitarian Universalist Theology by Thandeka

Ten sessions, meeting every other Thursday, starting Thursday, June 3, 7-9 pm

The first session will meet at Lindy Gifford's home in Damariscotta. The location of future meetings to be determined at the first meeting.

If you are interested in joining this class, but were unable to attend the planning meeting on May 20, please call or email Lindy Gifford: 563-1736 lindyg@tidewater.net

Other classes offered in the fall will include some of the following:

Emerson and the Transcendentalists

Cakes for the Queen of Heaven

Ethical Eating: Food & Environmental Justice Study Group and/or possibly others.

(Please email suggestions of classes you would like to see offered in future.)
